Beverley Davison's 'Classical Cabaret'

Virtuoso violinist Beverley Davison presents 'Classical Cabaret', a unique and highly entertaining show demonstrating her extraordinary talents as consummate musician, humorist and vocalist.

Protégé of Lord Yehudi Menuhin, Beverley Davison toured the world as soloist before founding and directing her own innovative genre 'Classical Cabaret'. She is Artistic Director of her own orchestra Hot Strings and makes frequent appearances on National TV and at concert venues. Her latest "Classical Cabaret" CD features regularly on Classic FM and BBC Radio 3.

Prepare to be dazzled by the dynamism, humour and breath-taking virtuosity of 'one of the most outrageously gifted violinists and entertainers Great Britain has ever produced.', Sir Simon Rattle - Maestro of the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra
