

PLEASE NOTE SPELLING OF BEVERLEY DAVISON, THANK YOU

Beverley Davison, Violin

“One of the most outrageously gifted musicians and entertainers Great Britain has ever produced ...” Sir Simon Rattle,
Maestro of the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra

Virtuoso violinist Beverley Davison’s exceptional talent was recognised at an early age when she was awarded a place at the world-renowned Yehudi Menuhin School for outstanding young musicians, where she studied violin with Lord Menuhin who described her as “a much loved, excellently gifted musician”.

Beverley has toured internationally as both soloist and chamber artiste. Declining the prestigious appointment of Co-leader of the ‘City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra’ offered by Sir Simon Rattle, she created her own innovative concept “Classical Cabaret”. This unique and highly entertaining genre demonstrates her extraordinary talents as consummate musician, humorist and vocalist.

Beverley is Artistic Director of her own orchestra Hot Strings and makes frequent appearances on National TV and at concert venues. Her latest “Classical Cabaret” CD features regularly on Classic FM and BBC Radio 3. In addition to her solo recordings, Beverley has also composed and recorded a second classical crossover album ‘Storm’ to great acclaim.

“brilliant, a totally versatile musician”....John Dankworth

“one of the most naturally and superbly gifted musicians it has been my privilege to work with”....Sir Peter Maxwell Davies

Prepare to be dazzled by the dynamism, humour and breath-taking virtuosity of Beverley Davison’s ‘Classical Cabaret’ show.
